OVERVIEW

Archway is a private equestrian training center that prepares riders for the competitive show circuit. Clare and Corey's ability to coach all levels of riders along with their desire to ensure the welfare of the horse creates an environment that breeds success. Archway has been providing superior horsemanship services to clients since 1984. The trainers are talented professionals and the program ranks among the best in the Northwest. The convenient location in Woodinville allows them to provide hunter/jumper training to Seattle and Eastside residents. Clare and Corey are passionate about teaching riders how to have a genuine partnership with their horse. Clare and Corey guide their riders towards setting challenging goals and in doing so, prepare them for the competitive show circuit. Clare and Corey consider horses as athletes so preserving their mental and physical well-being is of the utmost importance. At the end of the day, the attention they...
