OVERVIEW

Original art, prints and flasks of women, horses, cats, dogs, pet lovers, and high fashion illustration divas. All prints and flasks are very limited and hand crafted and created specifically for the buyer. Commissioned paintings as well as graphic design for website and personal use. Shano studied Art History at California State University of Northridge and University of Utah, as well as a year of Fashion Illustration at The Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in Sherman Oaks, California. (Which greatly influences her style of painting) Other influences are: Tamara de Lempicka, Amedeo Modigliani, Gustav Klimt, Franz Marc, and Marc Chagal, Erte, as well as fashion illustrators of past and present. Shano was raised in Alpena, Michigan and moved to Southern California at age 14. After graduating high school she became a self-proclaimed gypsy living in Santa Barbara, Sherman Oaks, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Antelope Valley, Palm Springs, Park City...
