OVERVIEW

Bickford Ford was established in 1934 by Lawrence Bickford in Downtown Snohomish, WA with one goal in mind - to serve the region's automotive needs. For four generations the Bickford Family has always focused on offering the highest level of service and respect to every individual who walks through the doors of Bickford Ford. Now fast forward 81 years and Bickford Ford is still the go to dealership for Ford owners in Washington State. Along the way, Bickford Ford has added trailer lines consisting of Featherlite, Trails West, and Hawk trailers to better serve the local equine market in Snohomish County. In 2002, the local Featherlite dealer in Everett had outgrown their lot and it was decided that they needed to find a new place to grow the business. After speaking with Mike Bickford about taking on the Featherlite line of trailers, Bickford Trailers was born. Since its inception, Bickford Trailers has sold over 2,000 trailers to members of the horse local horse community and have also...
