OVERVIEW

Born in Portland, Ore., to descendants of Oregon Trail pioneers, I fell in love with writing as soon as I could read, and with horses as soon as I could ride. I wrote my first stories — and illustrated them — at age seven. I got my first horse as well as my first author autograph at eleven, setting the dream in motion. I now enjoy writing mystery and adventure books and stories for adults and teens. See my website|Facebook page.Books, Magazines, DVD & Video>Books
