OVERVIEW

Organic Herbal Equine Supplements - Chava Naturals proudly carries on the tradition of the Chamisa Ridge Equine herbal product line. We used these products ourselves. Nothing has changed except the name. We offer the same select blend of innovative products and nature's most trusted resources—foremost among them, the herbs and herbal blends that have stood the test of time to help support, restore and enliven the body and spirit of your animal friends.  We use only organic herbs and when organic isn't available, sustainably wild crafted is substituted. The health of our horses is a priority in our daily life.  They are not only a huge part of our life, they partner with individuals and groups in Equine Facilitated Coaching programs.  As a Professional Leadership and Life Coach, I share my vision of providing life-coaching opportunities in partnership with horses in our community through Empowerment Through Connection (ETC), an approved…
