OVERVIEW

Double S Quarter Horses is owned and operated by Sue Sultze and her husband Tom Pasma. Their operation is located in the beautiful town of Bow, Washington which is nestled in rich farmland of Skagit County just an hour North of Seattle. Working together, Sue and Tom offer a complete start-to-finish program for the young horse, as well as conditioning and maintenance of the seasoned horse. We seek to instill strong fundamentals and a good work ethic, while also encouraging and developing each horse's individual style! At Double S, the main focus of their training program is on producing champion Reining, Working Cow, and Ranch Riding horses, however we have also trained and shown successfully in Ranch Riding, Western Pleasure, Western Riding, Trail, Hunter Under Saddle, Hunter Hack, Lounge Line, Roping and even Halter. We also offer Ranch Riding Horsemanship Clinics here at the Double S or other locations, contact…
