OVERVIEW

Fleet of Angels is a national non-profit service organization that provides emergency micro-grants (typically $250-$1000, depending upon the situation) and services for equines in crisis due to natural disasters and other situations that put their well-being at risk. Grants for emergency horse hay, urgent vet care, post-disaster fence repair expenses, emergency transportation, or other critical are available to qualified individuals and small equine rescues. Fleet of Angels also offers Bonded for Life micro-grants to adopters and rescuers who take two or more bonded equines into their care, committing to give them good care and a safe haven together for the rest of their lives. Visit our website for more information. Founded in 2012. Emergency Services|Resources|Rescue|Welfare>Equine|Emergency Horse Transport|Emergency Hay and Crisis-related Micro-grants
