OVERVIEW

Integrity and honesty are the cornerstone of my moral code. I carry these through my professional and personal life, both of which revolve around horses. Horses and real estate are my passions in life. I love being a part of the equestrian world and have incorporated my love for horses into my real estate business. I specialize in acreage and equestrian properties and want to be your trusted horse property advisor. I have spent my life around horses. From showing Arabians as a child and young adult, from 4-H to the Nationals; to managing a horse breeding and boarding facility; to my current role as the "show mom" of an equestrian athlete, I have experienced many facets of the horse industry and I know equestrian properties inside and out. Trust that I can help you in your horse property needs, whether it be buying or selling, I have the experience,...
