Standing a stocky, correct 14.2, he is the perfect fit for young riders learning the ropes all the way up to seasoned veterans and anyone in between. With a been-there-done-that mentality, nothing rattles this guy and makes him the go-to mount for any job. We use Nacona regularly for all aspects of ranch work including gathering, sorting, doctoring, dragging calves, checking fences, relocating strays, roping wild/loose cattle, and any other tasks that can be done horseback. He has even done several tours at the...
