OVERVIEW

We started Ryder last year as a two-year-old, and he was solid gold! After 20 rides as a 2-year-old, we turned him loose then brought him back in this year as a 3-year-old, and he picked up right where he left off. I have been a fan of the Blackburn-bred horses for years, and Ryder has lived up to the expectations- disposition, athletic ability, and conformation! I truly don't know how you'd improve him; he's a colt that will be with your family his whole life. We've used Ryder on the ranch this spring for everything from calving to gathering and branding. He's surefooted and steadfast. I love the way he responds in lessons- he thinks it through, uses his head, and assimilates the information. If you are looking for a young horse with a bright future, Ryder is the whole package! Ridden by Ken and Trent McNabb. FMI KenMcNabb...
