OVERVIEW

Reba is a user-friendly mare that doesn't have a mean bone in her body. She is a pleasant ride down the trail or to follow cows around on. Reba crosses water and downed timber easily and carefully. We have used her to trail and move cows from pasture to pasture, and she has been used to doctor and tag cattle. She also has drug calves on a sled to the barn in the dark. Everyone at the ranch has ridden her, from very inexperienced riders to those of us who ride daily. She is gentle but has plenty of go and life to match. Reba has a smooth traveling walk and a nice long trot. She would make a great trail partner or a fun ride for weekend playdays. Ridden by Brac Walker.
