OVERVIEW

Welcome to the heart of total horse health and community-building in Southern Oregon. Welcome to Massie Equine Equine Veterinary Clinic and Healing Center, a state of the art equine wellness and injury recovery facility. Our husband-and-wife team, equine veterinarian Dr. Keaton Massie and equine sports massage therapist Andria Massie, bring their shared compassion, complementary skill-sets, and a combined half-century of experience to the community. We deeply believe in harnessing the power of prevention, so we offer a variety of treatments covering the total wellness and sports medicine needs of horses of all ages and lifestyles. We are accepting new clients for annual preventative care and also welcome the following referrals from veterinary practices, trainers and farriers. Injury and wound recovery Sports medicine rehabilitation Surgical rehabilitation Overnight monitoring Subtle lameness detection Colic hospitalization Veterinary podiatry From regenerative therapies to massage, bodywork, and podiatry, Massie Equine provides treatments and coaching to help…
