

HorseSource.org Directory Listing

Northwest Carriage Museum

Come get Carried Away!

Connect

Laurie Bowman

nwcarragemuseum.org

nwcmdirector@gmail.com

360-942-4150

Location

314 Alder Street

Raymond, Washington

OVERVIEW

The Northwest Carriage Museum opened its doors in 2002 as a result of a very generous donation of 21 horse-drawn vehicles from Raymond, WA residents Gary and Cec Dennis. The museum has grown over the years through the efforts of Jerry & Laurie Bowman, Curator & Director Emeritus. Today, there are 65 incredible 19th-century horse-drawn vehicles at the museum, including elegant carriages, wagons, sleighs, two Stagecoaches, a Chuck Wagon and two hearses, to name a few. The vehicles are surrounded by thousands of artifacts that take you back in time. Our backroom includes an 1890s schoolhouse, a wheelwright/blacksmith shop, and a mechanical talking horse—the museum is fun for all ages. We also offer a unique gift shop. We are proud to be keeping history alive for you and future generations! The museum has been described as a “must-see” by many visitors and publications. We invite you to join the thousands...

