OVERVIEW

On Rivers' Edge is set in an attractive and inviting river-side garden setting. It features the original dairy barn, a large lawn adjacent to the Little Spokane River, a terrace for outdoor dining and seating by a firepit, a meadow of native and riparian plants, a boardwalk following the river, and multiple garden "rooms". There will be an emphasis on the simple family farm, while preserving the natural water and wildlife setting. To ensure we are as "green" as possible, many sites features are built from site resources or recycled products. Foods sold or served will include locally grown and produced. Services will always incorporate reusable supplies. Bob Brown and Pamela Brown are the owners of On Rivers Edge. Bob has many years experience in the classroom as an elementary, middle, and high school teacher, where students always appreciate his humor, candor, informality, and even “magic” tricks. Pamela has many…
