OVERVIEW

With our primary focus on pet urns in Washington, we also offer both private and non-private cremation services in Oregon for your pet—large or small. Our pet urns and cremation services are suited for pets from under 200 pounds to well over 2,000 pounds. We offer transportation services; both after or prior to passing. We have on call veterinarians that can assist with euthanasia. Contact us for additional information. Euthanasia & Related
