OVERVIEW

EQUESTRIAN POTENTIAL! This rare 10-acre estate offering 12,007 sq ft of exceptional craftsmanship and versatility is just waiting to be reimagined as a state of the art equestrian center. This one-of-a-kind timberframe home features 5 bedrooms and 4.5 baths, constructed with stunning reclaimed wood dating back to the 1880s and sourced from the historic Bumble Bee Cannery in Astoria and a mill in Longview. Rich architectural details, exposed beams showing the joinery construction, and five fireplaces create warmth and character throughout. Five peaks visible from property, with Mt Hood views from 24-foot soaring windows in great room, kitchen, dual offices, primary, and deck. St Helens, Rainier, Adams and Jefferson from different vantage points. A custom carved mantle shows all five mountains. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the home includes a stunning indoor saltwater pool and hot tub, complete with radiant heat flooring on pool deck, gym, theatre with…
