OVERVIEW

Red Horse Stables is a full-service Hunter/Jumper Show Barn owned and operated by Antonio and Corrie Castellanos. There are over 30 years between them in the world of Show Jumping, Hunters, Equitation and starting young horses. The Castellanos team has a classical approach to the training process and they offer a unique partnership to their clients. Through individual instruction, the talents of horse and rider are cultivated together for a lifetime of mutual enjoyment and competitive success. Together they have enjoyed many championships and successes in the Hunter and Jumper rings alike. It is their belief that they will never stop learning and so they continue their education by riding in clinics and riding with other top trainers. o the growth and development of the most devoted riders. RHS focuses on the progression of horse and rider as a team, helping clients achieve their riding goals while maintaining a spirit…
