OVERVIEW

Our mission is to positively impact lives through equine-related activities. Silver Buckle Ranch programs facilitate the learning and development of important life skills such as respect, responsibility, trust, citizenship, and compassion through horsemanship. Silver Buckle Ranch, originally established as the Silver Buckle Rodeo Club in 1977, began as a working rodeo program created to combat juvenile delinquency, substance abuse, gang involvement, and truancy among Clark and Cowlitz County youth through the promotion of rodeo events and horsemanship. In 2000 Silver Buckle Ranch restructured, received 501(c)(3) status, and officially changed from a working rodeo program to programs based on ranch and equine-assisted activities. For many years, programs at the ranch were funded by the operation of Rodeo Bingo, located in Vancouver, WA. In compliance with Washington state gaming laws, proceeds from this operation funded programs and activities at the ranch and Silver Buckle was able to offer free programs to area youth....
