OVERVIEW

Bent Tree Ridge sits on nearly 40 acres in the heart of the North Texas hill country — a working ranch shaped by mature oaks, three cross-fenced pastures, and long sunsets to the west. The property was built to feel like a destination rather than a facility: a place where horses can settle, and their owners can breathe. We keep our boarding roster small on purpose. Fewer horses on a bigger footprint means every animal is seen, every stall is turned out, and every owner knows the people caring for their horse by name. Ten minutes to Saint Jo, one mile from the Blue Ostrich Winery and 4R Ranch, thirty minutes to Gainesville. Rolling hills, wide open skies — and a stall to come home to.
