OVERVIEW

We are a family-owned and operated wilderness pack trip and horseback adventure business. Steve and Heather Morris are involved with every aspect of the business, from menu planning to shoeing their 20 horses and mules. They take pride in everything they do and offer the finest western pack trips and hunting trips possible. Not only do they have some of the finest country the west has to offer, they have great trail horses, comfortable saddles, and by far the best food of any outfit. Wallowa Mountain Outfitters offers: All summer trips are completely customizable with our horse or yours. Horseback Wine Tasting Rides in the Heart of Oregon Wine Country. Hunting in the most remote areas of the famed Eagle Cap Wilderness area of Northeast Oregon. For 20 days in June we don't book any guests; we leave our schedule open for teaching the art of packing mules. The 361,000-acre...
