OVERVIEW

As a fellow equestrian, I will listen to your individual needs and dreams. I will find a property that best suits your equestrian lifestyle within your budget. If you need to sell a property, I will combine my 35 years of experience selling real estate with my expertise in equestrian property to sell your home for the best price and in a reasonable time frame. Your best interest is always my top priority. I have advanced education in the latest internet marketing and advertising techniques to find the best buyer and bring your sale to a successful closing. References provided upon request. Windermere Real Estate/M2 LLC. Also an advisor for Windermere Equestrian Living Group.
