OVERVIEW

At Western Sky Horsemanship, Dale is passionate about sharing her knowledge and love of horses and ponies with those around her. She is dedicated to her continuing education, her students, and her horses and ponies. She can be found working horses early in the morning at her home, then at the training stable riding client horses, and teaching along with her instructors until the evening hours. Join Dale, with instructors Jadon Schiler, Katie Washington, and McKenzie Teel as they continue the never ending journey of horsemanship, at their new equestrian center in Redmond, Wa. Some comments from our clients... our family. "I started riding with Dale when I was 5 years old. Over the past twelve years I've learned to rope cattle, gallop down trails, ride bareback, and jump over tree stumps; but most importantly I learned to believe in myself. Riding with Dale taught me to never give up,...
